Half-yearly report – six months ended 31 December 2015

Chief Executive's statement

Today, Greatland Gold plc ("Greatland" or the "Company"), the mineral exploration and development company, announces its results for the six months to 31 December 2015. During the six month period the Company continued to explore for and develop mineral deposits across Australia, whilst also beginning to evaluate future opportunities for the Company to grow and develop outside of Australia.

Summary

In September 2015, the Company announced that its strategy would increasingly focus on its advanced exploration assets and other near term producing opportunities, while reducing the Company's exposure to early stage mineral exploration. Since then, the Company has been evaluating advanced stage opportunities globally and looks forward to updating the market in due course.

Financials

Greatland reported an operating loss for the six months to 31 December 2015 of £227,690 (six months to December 2014: loss of £243,192). This translated into a loss per share for the period of 0.03p (six months to December 2013: (0.03p)).

Operations

During the first six months of our financial year, challenging market conditions were apparent. However, the market has shown several signs of improvement in recent weeks and, with the new strategy in place, the Company believes that its focus on high priority operations will allow it to maximise shareholder value over the short to medium term.

In our strategy review, we noted that Warrentina presented an advanced opportunity. In January 2016, following drilling at the Derby North prospect, we announced that gold mineralisation had been intersected at the project adding to the overall prospectivity of the area.

At Ernest Giles, the Company felt that several sites were too deep and at too early a stage to be pursued. As such, the Company decided to retain the two core areas, the Meadows and Carnegie licences, and dispose of the others.

At the Bromus project, Greatland is relinquishing large parts of the project area, but is retaining its focus on the areas with undrilled bedrock conductors which may hold accumulations of nickel sulphides. Greatland is working through the approvals process and expects that drilling will commence during Q4 2016.

Finally, Greatland has disposed of low priority areas at the Firetower project to allow it to focus on the core Firetower gold mineralisation and Firetower West copper prospect, the higher priority projects. Firetower remains one of the most advanced gold projects in Tasmania after the operations at Henty. During the period, Greatland also announced that it now retains 100% of the licences at the project after the Company formally terminated the Farm-In Agreement with Unity Mining Ltd. The Company has the benefit of approximately A$1.84 million of exploration expenditure that Unity Mining Ltd incurred as part of the Farm-In Agreement, which was performed to a high technical standard.

Outlook

Greatland believes that the strategy review will allow it to continue to maximise value for shareholders by opening the Company up to wider growth opportunities. Shifting the focus towards advanced exploration assets and near term producing opportunities is expected to ensure the Company remains in a strong position to benefit from the improving trading environment.

Notes to Editors

Greatland is a mineral exploration and development company based in Australia. The principal activity of Greatland Gold plc is to explore for and develop natural resources, with a focus on gold and nickel. The Company currently has four mineral projects located in Australia, including the Ernest Giles, Bromus, Firetower and Warrentinna projects. The pipeline of projects targets highly prospective areas for large gold and nickel sulphide orebodies. The Company was established in London in 2005 and admitted to AIM in July 2006.

The board seeks to increase shareholder value through the systematic evaluation of its existing resource assets, as well as the acquisition of suitable exploration and development projects and producing assets.

Greatland has a UK and Australian based board of directors, with a head office in London and an exploration office in Australia.
